

Oklahoma Farm Bureau Foundation for Agriculture Brick Pavers

Oklahoma Farm Bureau Foundation for Agriculture is offering brick pavers to memorialize an individual or group in the OKFB's 75th Anniversary Commemorative Courtyard.

Located at the Oklahoma Farm Bureau home office in Oklahoma City, the courtyard highlights all 77 counties with a pillar in their respective quadrant of the state. Each pillar contains soil collected by a county Farm Bureau member to illustrate the differences throughout the state.

With your donation of $100, you can customize the text on the brick paver to commemorate an individual or group that has impacted Oklahoma agriculture. The brick will be installed into the courtyard and leave a lasting memory.
